IRISH SITUATION MORE ACUTE; BRITISH CONSIDER OFFENSIVE

War Office to Take Control of Troops and Will Decide Question of Intervention—Border Warfare Continues and Civil War Threatens.

London, June 2.—The advisability of a British military offensive campaign against the Irish Republicans in the Ulster frontier is under consideration by the war office today. Following a conference with Earl Balfour, acting foreign minister, Sir John Craig, premier of Ulster, made the following statement: "I have been decided to place entire hands of the British war office will decide whether it is necessary to take the offensive against the Republicans or cross the Ulster border into the free state."

It is reported that British troops quartered at Newry have been rushed to that city to the district of Louth and hard pressed constables who are engaged with the Republicans on a wide front.

At no time since the signing of the Anglo-Irish peace treaty has the situation been so acute. The chief elements are the following: 1.—British cabinet finds the proposed Irish free state constitution and the Collins-DeValera coalition agreement unacceptable.

2.—Heavy fighting is in progress along the Ulster boundary between republicans and Ulsterites with the growing threat that it will develop into actual civil war.

3.—Members of the Ulster government in London refuse to treat with representatives of the Irish free state so Earl Balfour, acting foreign minister has been named mediator.

4.—Possibility exists that British troops in Ulster will undertake an aggressive campaign against the republicans along the Ulster border. Downing street officials appeared to be a trifle more optimistic this morning but they admitted that their hope rested upon Michael Collins, the "strong man of the Irish provisional government."

Downing street officials said that if Collins would secure a revision of the proposed Irish constitution to include an oath of allegiance to the cabinet, would be satisfied.

Premier Lloyd George plans to go tonight for Cricketh, Wales, for a short vacation. Unless a tentative understanding is reached by night, it is likely that the Irish solution will be delayed for some days.

Lord Cavan, chief of the British general staff was present at a cabinet meeting. It was indicated that the British military authorities in Ulster will immediately be given a freer hand to deal with violence.

Nation-Wide Transportation Tie-Up Believed Inevitable

Strike to Come as Protest to Wage Cuts Provided By Railway Labor Board, Union Officials Now Declare

MILLION MORE WILL BE AFFECTED

New Reductions Will Average Five Cents an Hour for All Employees Except "Big Four" Brotherhoods—Date for Walkout Uncertain.

Washington, June 2.—The next wage reduction order of the railroad labor board at Chicago will provide for slashes in the pay of more than a million additional railway workers including not only the shopcrafts but all employees except those who are members of the "big four" transportation brotherhoods, it was learned authoritatively here today. The new reductions will average five cents per hour and are expected to take effect on July 1 like those already ordered for the maintenance of way employees.

Although slight changes may be made in the labor board's schedule before the forthcoming order is issued, latest reports are that the new cuts would be as follows:

Five cents per hour for supervising clerks, freight handlers, switch board operators, messengers, office boys, mail distributors, station employees, janitors, laborers in and around stations and warehouses, gatemen, train announcers, ticket examiners, telegraphers, levermen, agents at smaller stations, station-firmen and others.

Railroad labor leaders are unanimous in their belief that a nationwide transportation tie-up is inevitable as a protest against these pay reductions but there are differences of opinion as to when the strike will be made most effective. It is pointed out that the workers themselves have been clamoring for a strike during the past several months and that strike votes are certain to reveal an almost unanimous demand for a walkout.

In planning for a big railroad strike, however, those who will be responsible for directing the strike will take into consideration the present strike of 500,000 union coal miners and the effect of the mine tie-up upon any steps taken by the railroad unions.

If the railroad men should decide to go out within the next 3 months they probably will join forces with the miners, precipitating the biggest strike in the world's history and virtually paralyzing industry in the United States.

NO DECISION WILL BE FORTHCOMING ON FORD'S SHOALS OFFER

Matter Will Go Over to Next Session of Congress

Washington, June 2.—Congress will not reach a decision on disposal of the government's Muscle Shoals Nitrate Plant at the present session, it was declared today by Congressional leaders.

The action of Henry Ford in challenging congress to an immediate decision on his revised offer, while disconcerting his opposition, will not bring about a favorable decision, according to house leaders. At the same time, the senate is only waiting the appearance of the army appropriation bill in order to vote $7,500,000 for resumption of work at Muscle Shoals by government engineers. This action by the senate, it was declared, would preclude any decision on Ford's offer until next year.

Ford's revised offer, which he declared would be "final" was to be formally presented to the house military affairs committee today by William B. Mayo, his chief of engineers.

Four distinct changes marked Ford's new offer, it was learned. These were a guarantee to manufacture fertilizers at Muscle Shoals; an agreement to put additional capital into the project; a concession of more supervising power to the government and his agreement to accept the government owned part of the Gorgas plant instead of the complete plant.

JUDGE FERNEDING FILES PETITION FOR RE-ELECTION

Dayton, O., June 2.—Carrying signatures of people prominent over the district Judge Henry L. Ferneding's certificate as a candidate for re-election to the court of appeals bench was filed today. Judge B. F. McCann, Dayton; Judge J. D. Barnes, Sidney; John L. Zimmerman, Springfield; Mayor M. J. Hartley, Xenia; Henry Gumble, Columbus; Miss Anna M. Buchwalter, Greenville; and John R. Glynn, prominent in railway labor circles, are the signers of the Dayton man's certificate as a candidate. Judge Ferneding is a Democrat and presiding judge of the district. Judges Allread, of Columbus, and Kunkle, of Springfield, his associates are Republicans.

Powerful Hand of John D. Rockefeller Against Oser

Legal Move Made by Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick Sanctioned by America's Richest Man It Becomes Known.

Chicago, June 2.—That the powerful hand of John D. Rockefeller, America's richest man, was behind the legal move made by his daughter, Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, to forestall the marriage between Mathilde McCormick and the Swiss riding master Max Oser, was intimated today by former Judge Charles Cutting, counsel for Mrs. McCormick. "Mrs. McCormick has always been opposed to this match," said Attorney Cutting. "She has been trying

TAKE FIRST STEP TO AID MEXICAN RECONSTRUCTION

Bankers Attend Meeting New York On Friday.

New York, June 2.—The first definite step towards proposed financial reconstruction of Mexico was taken here today when Adolfo DeLahuerta Mexican minister of finance, began conferring with a committee of American and English bankers. The meeting today was merely for the purpose of organization. Later on the conferences will take up the following:

- 1.—Arrangement by Mexico for payment of her external loans.
  - 2.—An international loan to the Mexican government.
  - 3.—Reorganization of the Mexican banking system. The Mexican national debt, including interest, is estimated at more than $28,000,000.
- Among the bankers taking part are Thomas W. Lamont, of J. P. Morgan and company; Mortimer L. Schiff, of Kuhn Loeb and Company; T. G. Smith of the Central Trust Company; Charles H. Sabin of the Guaranty Trust Company; Sir William Wiseman and E. R. Peacock, a director of the bank of England.

Mexicans are hopeful that an agreement regarding finance will assist the Obregon administration to secure recognition from the United States government.

One of the properties are developed by others are not. The total acreage involved is about 50,000 acres of best coal land in the country. It is financial arrangements are about complete for bringing all these properties under one corporate head.

The sole idea of the merger is economical production," said Mr. Bell. "These various companies are binned there will be a large saving in overhead, duplication of effort reduction of expenses at the mines. It will then be possible to materially cut down the price of coal to consumer."

The names of the companies will be held until the merger is an accomplished fact, Bell said.

VIOLENT BATTLE NOW IN PROGRESS

Belfast, June 2.—A violent battle is in progress over an extensive front along the Ulster-Louth frontier between Republicans on one side and Ulster constabulary and British troops on the other, according to advices from "the front" this afternoon.

The constables were being beaten back when the British troops were rushed up to reinforce them.

Fighting has been resumed in the Milford area. Many Catholic residents of Belfast are in flight.

Incendiaries continue active and the tension has risen to such a pitch that it is probable that the theaters will be closed.

RACE TRACK MAN IS QUESTIONED IN SENSATIONAL CASE

Allege Ward's Father Object of Blackmail Plot—Not the Son.

White Plains, N. Y., June 2.—James J. Cunningham, race track hanger-on and former private detective, who was arrested as material witness after telling a story in which he claimed to know the details of the killing of Clarence Peters, ex-sailor, by Walter S. Ward, millionaire vice president of the Ward Baking Company, was questioned at length by Westchester county officials today.

According to Cunningham it was Ward's father who was being blackmailed by Peters and two other men known as "Rogers" and "Joe" Jackson. Cunningham said he thought it was over an affair the older Ward was alleged to have had with a woman. Walter S. Ward was acting as "go-between."

Los Angeles, Cal., June 2.—"I can throw light on the Ward mystery, all right. I know a few things that those interested in prosecuting Mr. Ward would like to know. And I'll tell all I know if they ask me, but not until then."

This statement was attributed to Miss Martha Kendall, a modiste, who was located in Hollywood by a Los Angeles newspaper.

Miss Kendall said that she had filed a suit charging criminal conspiracy against Walter S. Ward, in Pittsburgh several years ago. She charged that Ward had broken into her apartment and attempted to kidnap her.

Miss Kendall said she had not seen Ward for several years, since shortly after his father, George S. Ward, millionaire baker, settled with her out of court on a $10,000 suit for damages against his son.

The story told by Miss Martha Kendall was branded as untrue in Pittsburgh, by a close friend of Ward, who said he knew Miss Kendall well.

MANY OBSTACLES LIE IN PATH OF SOLDIERS' BONUS

Walsh Voices Warning That Passage of Bill is Far Off.

Washington, June 2.—A warning that the prospective bonus legislation was "certain to encounter many difficulties before its final passage," and any attempt to postpone consideration of it until after the tariff bill is disposed of would imperil its enactment, at this session was voiced by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, a democratic member of the senate finance committee in a statement issued today.

"The opposition to bonus legislation is powerful enough, although when the final vote is taken its opponents will be comparatively few," said Walsh.

"There are many however, who are only half hearted in their support and many who would like to see it rejected, but are not willing to be known as active in the opposition to it. Such a condition always encourages inaction and delay."

"From the outset this opposition has had the most money and the most influence behind it, but fortunately there are more than enough votes to overcome it once we get the bonus to a vote."

An increasing number of Republican and Democratic senators were lining up today behind a straight-out, cash soldiers bonus as a substitute for the McCumber insurance certificate plan.

FESS FINDS SITUATION IN STATE SATISFACTORY

Washington, June 2.—Rep. S. D. Fess and Walter F. Brown, who are spoken of as potential rivals in the Republican senatorial contest in Ohio, returned here from Ohio yesterday. Brown declined to forecast his attitude regarding the toga. "I have been pretty generally over the state and find the situation most satisfactory," said Fess. "I find no opposition and I am convinced that the state concedes the honor is due me."

QUESTION GARY ON BIG STEEL MERGER FRIDAY

Steel Head On Stand Before Committee In New York.

A S K EXPLANATION

Undermyer Declares Testimony Given Thursday Not Frank.

New York, June 2.—Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the U. S. Steel Corporation was questioned by Samuel Undermyer, counsel for the Lockwood committee regarding the proposed Lackawanna-Bethlehem and the three company merger announced by Thomas L. Chadbourne, when he took the witness stand today in the resumed steel merger hearings before the committee.

Judge Gary told Undermyer he would be glad to furnish the committee with any of the records of the U. S. Steel corporation, declaring the corporation was a believer in "pitiless publicity."

In response to Undermyer's query, the steel head said, the corporation's total outstanding stock issues amount to $850,000,000 of which $350,000,000 is preferred, and that the bond issues total $600,000,000.

John A. Topping, chairman of the board of directors of the Republic Iron and Steel Company and A. C. Dickey, president of the Midvale Steel and Ordnance company, were severely criticized by Samuel Undermyer, chief counsel for the Lockwood committee when the hearings were resumed by the committee today. Mr. Undermyer scored the testimony given yesterday by the two steel heads that there were no plans formulated or amounts fixed regarding the three cornered proposed merger of the two companies as represented by the two foregoing steel companies' officers and the Inland Steel company.

After reading yesterday's testimony given by Mr. Dickey in which he said that the merger was merely under discussion, Mr. Undermyer, addressing the committee said:

"Hardly had they left the witness stand when a formal announcement was made regarding the proposed merger stating the amount, stock and all details."

The chief counsel then offered in evidence the statement pertaining to the proposed three company merger which appeared in the press this morning.

"These gentlemen," he continued, "have not been very frank with the committee. They have been communicated with and asked to come back. I am going to require them to explain their action; this committee is not going to be trifled with. Such plans are not completed over night."

Judge Gary admitted that the U. S. Steel corporation had an advantage of $3 per ton in the selling price of steel products over independents because of the advantage in transportation facilities. The steel head declared that bidding for structural steel will be limited by the proposed merger of different steel companies and admitted under questioning by Undermyer that competition had been lessened by the formation of the U. S. Steel corporation.

Gary declared in reply to Undermyer's questions that J. P. Morgan and company "certainly did not" direct the U. S. Steel corporation and that J. P. Morgan alone was not instrumental in appointments of directors on the finance commission, the most important committee of the organization. Under repeated and insistent questioning by the Lockwood committee counsel, Judge Gary admitted that the sanction of J. P. Morgan was sought before such appointments were made.

To illustrate that J. P. Morgan did not have the entire say in the appointments, Mr. Gary said during the past year, he disagreed with Mr. Morgan over the filling of three vacancies on the board and his appointees were approved by Morgan.

The bank balance of the Steel corporation, Judge Gary testified, on Jan. 1, of this year, was $125,000,000. Of this amount $3,000,000 was on deposit with J. P. Morgan and company on which the steel corporation received 26 per cent interest.

COAL PRICE FLYING MAY LENGTHEN STRIKE

Washington, June 2.—Stabilizing soft coal prices, effected by Secretary of Commerce Hoover through conferences with groups of operators now producing coal probably will prolong the coal strike, it was said by experts here today.

It was pointed out that as 80 per cent of the operators had agreed to the new scale of prices, ranging from $2.20 to $3.50 for "spot run of mine coal" there would be little or no danger of panicky consumers bidding against each other for coal with the consequent skyrocketing of prices and depletion of reserve stocks. This was one of the dangers of the strike situation.

"The government has no authority in the matter for this is purely a moral question and one of cooperation," Secretary Hoover said.

The baby was left in a crib in the kitchen, while milk was warming on the stove and its parents were putting the other children to bed on the second floor. When Mrs. Smith came to the stairs a few minutes later the downstairs rooms were in flames.

Smith leaped from a second story window and attempted to rescue the child in the kitchen and was only saved himself by Seaton, who discovered the fire and ran to aid the family. Mrs. Smith and the other children were injured in jumping from the second story window.

My appetite was very poor and I went for two or three days at a time without eating scarcely a mouthful for everything I ate hurt me. "But three bottles of Tanlac put me in fine shape and in the three years since then I've been in splendid condition. If I ever feel a little off at any time, a bottle of Tanlac sets me right again and I just can't say too much for it."

BONUS LISTS ARE CHECKED OVER ONCE

Columbus, June 2.—The Ohio soldier bonus department has gone through the entire list of 212,100 applications filed so far and has paid all plainly valid claims, Robert R. Roberts, director, announced yesterday.

Work has commenced on rechecking 65,000 to 70,000 claims which were laid aside at first for one cause or another. Most of them are valid but it requires a little longer time to verify them.

Many of those held back can be verified only in Washington because service cards had not been forwarded to Ohio. Service records of only about 200,000 of Ohio's 243,000 ex-service men are in the adjutant general's office here. Other applications were laid aside because the length of service noted by applicants did not correspond with army records, still others because of difficulty in establishing proof of Ohio residence, and so on.

KROGER GROCERY ROBBED IN BROAD DAYLIGHT FRIDAY

Police Friday afternoon were searching for a big man, wearing a blue suit, and a straw hat, believed to have perpetrated a daring daylight robbery at the Kroger Grocery and Baking Company and escaped with $75 or more in cash.

The robbery occurred while the store was closed as usual at the luncheon hour, between one and two o'clock and the robbery was discovered when Manager Morey Whalen reopened the place of business at two o'clock. The robber attempted to enter through a rear window but could not force an entrance through a heavy screen. He then gave his attention to the year door, and was able to force the lock.

The money was taken from the cash register. Although Manager Whalen said that, at least $75 was in the cash drawer, it is possible that the amount was greater than that. The exact amount will not be known until a representative of the company from Dayton arrives here and checks the cash.

Manager Whalen told Lieutenant of Police Dave Mangan who investigated the robbery that he had seen a big man wearing a blue suit, and a straw hat, lounging around the window at eight o'clock in the morning. The man ran when he saw the manager. The robbery occurred while there were many people passing the store and while places of business on both sides were open and full of people. Police searched the city and the railroad yards Friday afternoon without result.

BOWELS PARALYZED
--NOW WELL

Suffered Over 20 Years, Yet Nervous Worth Restored.

When a man has suffered for over 20 years with indigestion and constipation until his bowels are in a paralyzed condition and he has tried remedies and doctors without relief he is likely to be quite skeptical of what any other remedy may be able to do for him. That was the state of mind in which Mr. James Hudson, of Muskegon, Mich., began the use of Nerv-Worth--yet before he had used up the first bottle, so he tells one of our representatives, he began to feel the beneficial effects. His sour stomach was improved he had no more gas bloated, did not belch after eating, could sleep well and had regular movements of his bowels without artificial aid. That seems truly remarkable, but there are thousands of people throughout this country, who have had a similar experience with Nerv-Worth and it is for that reason that we authorize every druggist to give the purchase money back if the first bottle fails to show satisfactory and encouraging results. Nearly every druggist has it at one dollar a bottle. You can always find it on sale at the Sayre & Hemphill drug store in this city. If you suffer from any form of stomach or bowel ailment you should give it a trial at once. It is especially fine for delicate women and sickly children and its taste is very pleasant.

THURSDAY EVENING
COMPLETES SERIES

With the enthusiastic success of the last of the three entertainments, the cantata presented by the members of the Xenia Woman's Music Club, at the First United Presbyterian Church Thursday evening, for the benefit of the Greene County Library, the purpose of raising funds for the organization has been accomplished.

With the best talent that the city affords taking part in the three programs each have aided equally to the success of the series. The receipt of over five hundred dollars from the three programs, made possible by the hearty response on the part of the public, is assured at the close of the last entertainment it is announced.

A capacity audience witnessed the cantata given by the Music Club Thursday evening one of the best musical offerings ever presented in this city, being enjoyed. The cantata by the Music Club, is an annual event and is each year heralded as the outstanding event in musical circles in the city.

Musicians who took part in the program, were all Xenia talent, with the exception of Henry Ditzel, of Dayton, who appeared on the program in "Concerto G. Minor" by C. Saint Saens, with his pupil Miss Juanita Rankin. Mr. Ditzel is recognized in Dayton musical circles as among the best of the city's talent, and his rendition, with Miss Rankin, was one of the most charming of the evening's numbers.

A chorus of twenty voices, under the direction of Mrs. William H. McGervey, opened the program, with three numbers, "Morning," by Oley Speaks, "Evening," by Rungengagen, and "When A Maid Comes Knocking," by Friml. Each voice adding to the beauty of the numbers, displaying careful training and culture. Miss Emma Davidson, and Mrs. Mary M. Meredith, among the most charming musicians of the city, offered three numbers to the program, including "The Bonnie Piper's Tune," by Harvey W. Loomis, "Laughter Wears a Lilly Crown" by Gena Branscombe, and an original duet by Miss Davidson, as the third number.

Two piano numbers were given by Mrs. Robert Arthur Kelly, a most pleasing pianist, who displays marked ability and grace in her renditions. Mrs. Kelly's numbers were "Polonaise" by Chopin, and "Waltz."

The closing and largest number on the program of the evening was the cantata, "A Spring Symphony" by the Club chorus.

The success of the performance was due to the united efforts of each individual musician, under the able direction of Mrs. McGervey. The chorus, work and obligato, were rendered by Mrs. James Hawkins. The accompaniment during the entire program was Miss Stella Bishop, who filled the office very efficiently.

Masses of gay garden blossoms, in baskets and bouquets were placed about the church adding an attractive note to the evening.

E. E. Mullen, No. Xenia, Ohio says: "For 10 years I have been troubled with kidney and bladder. I had to get up 5 or 6 times each night. If you want further facts, write me."

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Conquered or Money Back
For 40 years, says Dr. Carey, I have been prescribing my PRESCRIPTION No. 777 for Kidney and Bladder sickness on the money back if dissatisfied plan.

If you are tired, miserable, tortured with nagging backache, lameness, acute, darting pains; subject to dizziness, headaches, sallow skin, puffiness under your eyes, a tendency to rheumatic pains and Bladder disorders, look to your Kidneys. Don't wait. Get your health back while you can. Drink lots of food, pure water and start at once taking Dr. Carey's PRESCRIPTION No. 777, Liquid or Tablets. It has wonderfully benefited tens of thousands. Results guaranteed. Recommended and sold by Sayre & Hemphill and all druggists. Insist on genuine.

Lithiated Buchu acts on the kidneys and bladder like epsom salts on the bowels. It cleans them out, relieving the bladder of many abnormal deposits. These tablets cost 25 apiece. The price makes it possible to place in the formula several drugs which are useful for relief. The formula is on the package. It is not likely you have ever taken anything similar. Try a few tablets for backache, scalding scanty or high-colored urine, and frequent desire at night.

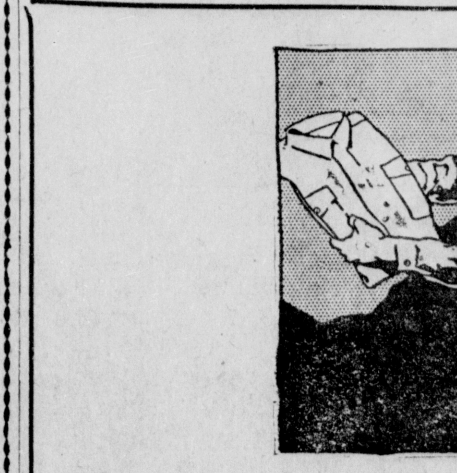

Be sure to get the Keller formula. Lithiated Buchu at all drug stores or write Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, O., or locally at Sayre & Hemphill's.

ATTORNEY GENERAL DAUGHERTY MUST BE BACKED TO THE HILT.

Administration policy with reference to the attacks on Harry M. Daugherty, Attorney General, is being discussed over the weekend at a Presidential council-of-war aboard the Mayflower.

President Harding was accompanied during his cruise in Chesapeake Bay by the 3 men often described as those on whose advice he would chiefly depend in a grave political emergency. They include Mr. Daugherty himself; John W. Weeks, Secretary of War, and Senator Harry S. New, of Indiana. A fourth member of the Mayflower party is Albert D. Lasker, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, in whose judgment the President reposes high confidence.

No one in Washington believes that, barring wholly unforeseen developments, Mr. Harding would consent to the Attorney General's departure from the Cabinet. If Mr. Daugherty were to tender his resignation, on the possible ground of wishing to save the Administration from "embarrassment," it is certain the President would do his utmost to dissuade him, from insisting upon it.

Between no two men in American public life during contemporary times have ties of greater affection existed. Only the friendship of William McKinley for Mark Hanna is comparable to them. Mr. Daugherty, as much as any one man can do such a thing, "made" Warren G. Harding politically. The one claims it the other concedes it.

Apart from their comradeship, the political equation enters into the situation with which President Harding now is dealing. He is required to consider the exigencies of the Daugherty case from the standpoint of the Republican Party. Many G. O. P. leaders are ready to advise that it would be the height of bad strategy for Mr. Daugherty to resign or to be allowed to resign, while under fire, which his friends ascribe mainly to Democratic partisan machination.

If the President's Mayflower counselors say to him what other Republican spokesmen are saying, they will tell him the only sagacious course is for Mr. Daugherty to proceed full-steam-ahead with the war profiteer prosecution. There will have to be, they say, equally unremitting pressure in the conduct of the Federal case against Charles W. Morse and his associates.

There are authorities in Washington who suggest that not only Democratic partisans, but Morse and his friends, are building the back-fire behind the Attorney General. For all of those reasons, Republicans declare, the policy of the Harding Administration is clear, and without an alternative. The Attorney General must be backed to the hilt in the litigation he has initiated.

MOSCOW PAYS TRIBUTE TO DEAD AMERICAN.

The body of Harold F. Blandy, of New York City, the first American to sacrifice his life in the fight against Russian famine conditions, who died of typhus at Ufa recently, was sent on the first stages of its journey home Sunday.

The body was draped in the Stars and Stripes and was half covered with a blue mantle of forget-me-nots. Blandy's Russian comrades with whom he worked at Ufa united in honoring him as a man who died to save others in a remote corner of the world. The American emblem, although it has never been used by the American Relief Administration in Russia to mark the work of the living, was brought out to honor the dead.

The two-hour journey from the headquarters of the American Relief Administration to the railroad station was marked by many tributes of respect. Thin and emaciated refugees from the famine regions doffed their hats and made the sign of the cross before the casket of the American who sacrificed his life for peasants as ragged and hungry as they.

Blandy's body was brought to Moscow from Ufa and placed in a metallic casket which was a gift of the Soviet Government. After funeral services the casket was placed in a car that was decorated with green boughs and the Stars and Stripes. A special courier accompanied the body to Riga.

WHY THE ATTACK ON THE ATTORNEY GENERAL?

With prosecution of Morse and other war profiteers and their political pals pending, it is natural that the secret and open advocates of these worthies should be pouring in a barrage on Attorney General Daugherty. Information furnished by the indicted Morse to his journalistic and political publicity agents shows that at one time Mr. Daugherty, then an attorney, entered into a contract, through a third party, to represent Morse legally in procuring him a pardon. The pardon was secured and Morse did not pay for the services rendered. This is supposed to be discreditable to Attorney General Daugherty. The professional service was entirely legitimate. The significant feature of the case is that Morse was revealed in the transaction as a repudiator of his written contract. Just how his friends in public life and the newspaper business think this is going to help Morse or the distinguished Democratic politicians who were mixed up with him in his shipbuilding transactions with the Wilson administration is not clear. No one has better reasons than has Attorney General Daugherty for believing that Morse would be capable of "skinning" the government. The reason Attorney General Daugherty is being attacked on the eve of many important prosecutions will come out as the facts in many of these cases become known.

NAME MUST REMAIN OUT OF SENTIMENT.

"With that admirable instinct for the proprieties which is inherent in him, President Harding has turned aside the Shipping Board's proposal that his name be given to the historic liner Leviathan. The former Vaterland will retain the name she received in wartime, and, let it be hoped, she will be the Leviathan as long as she sails the seas. Everybody in America and a great many Europeans know what the Leviathan did. The very name of the huge vessel suggests the dispatching, by tens of thousands, of the young Americans who were eager to reach France and the great struggle. As the President says in his letter to Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board, the name Leviathan has 'an overpowering national sentiment' and is 'a national symbol.' Mr. Harding's fine perception of the popular imagination has prevented the making of what would have been a serious mistake."

TREES

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.
A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;
A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;
A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;
Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.
Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.
(From "Trees and Other Poems," by Joyce Kilmer.)

WOMAN RESIGNS AS SUPERINTENDENT OF T. B. HOSPITAL

That the services of Miss Mary Lyon as superintendent of the District Hospital Springfield were not satisfactory to the board of trustees, was disclosed by Dr. R. H. Grube, Greene County's member, in discussing the resignation of Miss Lyons and two nurses Wednesday. The resignations of Miss Lyons, as superintendent and Miss Gertrude Julien and Mrs. Jessie Marsh as nurses from the staff of the hospital, became effective Wednesday and it is said to have followed the receipt of an anonymous letter. The trustees, in meeting Monday, turned the superintendency temporarily over to Dr. C. F. H. Finney hospital physician, but he may be placed in complete permanent charge of the institution at the meeting next Tuesday, according to Dr. Grube.

Five nurses under Dr. Finney are now caring for the 42 patients at the hospital. Miss Lyons, the superintendent has only been at the hospital about a month succeeding Miss Anna Shephard, former superintendent who resigned to take charge of a summer camp in Maine. The new superintendent was only accepted on trial according to Dr. Grube, who says he heard of the anonymous letter she is said to have received but did not learn its contents.

W. F. Tuttle of Springfield, treasurer of the board said Thursday night that the letter caused the trouble which resulted in Miss Lyons' resignation. Dr. Finney also admitted the anonymous letter and said that he thought Miss Lyons' efforts to trace the source of the letter, caused the situation to become serious. The letter episode will be investigated by the trustees in meeting next Tuesday, it is said.

According to Dr. Grube, the law provides that a physician should be head of the district hospital, which is operated jointly by Greene, Clark, Champaign and Madison Counties. When Dr. R. R. Richison formerly of Yellow Springs was physician at the hospital he also acted as superintendent it is said, but the board was so pleased at the capable direction of the hospital by Miss Shephard that they permitted her to retain the position while she remained there. The old rule of having a physician as superintendent will not be reverted to, it is said.

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC OVER SAYS GRUBE; REPORT EXPECTED

Dr. R. H. Grube, City Health Commissioner, is satisfied that the typhoid epidemic here has spent itself, he said Friday morning.

According to the Health Commissioner, no new cases of the disease have been reported here for some time and all cases are now convalescent. Only a few cases were serious, he said, and they also are now improving.

"The disease here was only in a very mild form," said Dr. Grube, Friday. "In most cases it was really only an intestinal infection and ordinarily would not have been called typhoid except for the fact that the disease was more or less prevalent."

With the report of the result of the investigation of the source of the disease made here by State Health Department officials not yet received, the blame for the epidemic has not yet been fixed, according to Dr. Grube. A report, urging changes in water connections at mills has been received however according to the Health Commissioner, and will be followed up in detail.

The report indicated the possibility of creek water leaking into the mains at water connections at Mills, where extra water service is employed for fire protection, Dr. Grube said Friday. These connections will be revised on order of the state department under the direction of Dr. Grube to make impossible the contamination of the city water. This action does not mean that the cause of the recent epidemic is blamed on that source, as the full report has not yet been received but remedial action is expected to eradicate any possibility of that causing similar trouble in the future, according to Dr. Grube. Following an epidemic at Salem a few years ago, the state legislature gave the state health department complete control of these connections with authority to cut off city water if remedial suggestions are not carried out, according to Dr. Grube.

KANSAS CITY GIVES ROTARY DELEGATES ROUSING WELCOME

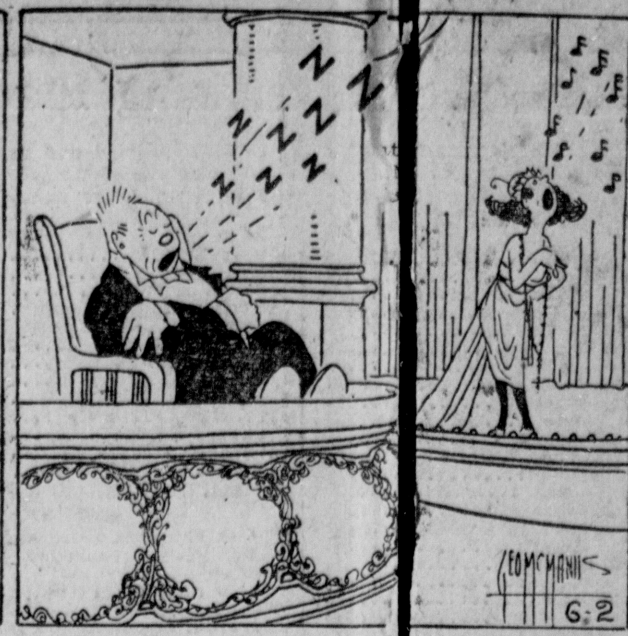

Ohio Rotarians on their way to Los Angeles, to attend the thirteenth annual convention of International Rotary were welcomed in Kansas City by a large delegation of Rotarians and Chamber of Commerce officials headed by Russel Greiner, of Kansas City, former Xenian, president of the Kansas City Rotary Club, former International Rotary President, and organizer of the Dayton Rotary Club.

About 250 people were in the welcoming party and the Ohioans were whisked away in automobiles to a special breakfast prepared for them and for a ride over Kansas City. Hutchinson and Newton Kansas Club members also welcomed the delegation at the stations as the Rotary Special passed through and another reception was being staged by Albuquerque, (N. M.) Club, where the special was expected to stop for two hours Friday morning.

Earl Reeder, member of the Dayton Club and president of the Dayton Coca Cola Bottling Co., has directed the business correspondent of the firm in Albuquerque to place 1,000 bottles of Coca Cola on the train for the benefit of the Rotarians. The trains will draw into Williams, Arizona at ten o'clock Friday night and from that point will divert to the Grand Canyon where they will spend all of Saturday. The trains will leave there at eight o'clock Saturday night and arrive in Los Angeles Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

President J. A. Chew, of the Xenia Rotary Club and Mrs. Chew, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harner of this city, are in the delegation.

HALF HOLIDAY IN XENIA THIS SUMMER IS NOW ASSURED

Signers of a petition circulated by Miss Janice Owens, office manager of the Chamber of Commerce, in favor of closing Wednesday noon during June, July and August, have insured that the half holiday plan will be in vogue here this summer.

Sufficient signers have already been obtained to establish the half holiday but the petition will be circulated further in order to get as many firms, as possible into the plan. Firms not solicited are asked to call the Chamber of Commerce and the paper will be taken to them or to call at the Chamber of Commerce and sign it if they favor the daylight saving plan.

Three shoe stores would not agree to close the half day during all three summer months, but agreed to close during July and August. The Citizens National Bank signed the paper tentatively, their decision being based on whether the other banks will follow in line. The other banks have expressed themselves as willing to fall in line with the plan if it is universal, but have to wait action of directors before signing the petition.

So far the signers of the petition to start closing June 14 and continue through July and August, are as follows: R. D. Adair, Hutchison and Gibney, W. E. Boring, The Criterion, Katz and Richards, L. S. Hyman, J. Thorb Charters, W. C. W. Co., Fred F. Graham, L. S. Barnes and Co., J. A. Beatty and Son, L. A. Wagner, D. E. Anderson, Charles A. Kelble, Brower Music Shop, Tiffany Jewelry Store, The Home Building and Savings Co., S. B. LeSourd and Co., Clara G. Reutinger, C. A. Weaver, The Peoples Building and Savings Co., Fisher Bros., F. W. Sanger, Citizens National Bank, E. A. Sanz and Bruson Bootery. The three shoe stores to close during July and August are C. S. Frazer, A. Moser and The S. and S. Shoe Store.

GENERAL TREND TOWARD IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS CONDITIONS REFLECTED HERE

General business and industrial conditions in Xenia are improving as they are all over the state, a recent survey shows.

Conditions in local manufacturing industries are much better, with full employment in effect in most industrial plants, while retail merchants are enjoying the increased business which better times produce.

An absolute movement toward better conditions is reported from even the most conservative quarters locally, corresponding with the same sentiment which has been evidenced in other parts of the state. Indications are that unemployment is rapidly being eliminated and that conditions are fast getting back to normal.

At the Hooven and Allison Co., Xenia's largest industry, every wheel is turning in the factories in Xenia. Covington, Ky., Cincinnati and Kansas City, it is reported. "Business conditions seem to be improving slowly," said a member of that company.

The R. A. Kelly Co., is working not only full time but overtime, and could

AD. WRITTEN IN SKY WITH SMOKE TRAILED FROM AIRPLANE ASTONISHES BIG LONDON AUDIENCE

London, June 2.—What may prove to be the basis of a world-wide revolution in the advertising business was initiated in London yesterday when 5,000,000 Londoners saw the words "Daily Mail" written across in the sky in letters of smoke 700 yards in length.

The first experiments were made yesterday at Epsom for the benefit of derby spectators but Lord Northcliffe today went further and showed the entire city his notion of future broadcast advertising.

An invisible airplane two miles high maneuvered skillfully by the pilot, Captain Turner, formed the letters which were actually written by smoke entering from a box through a jet, fixed behind the rudder, the pilot controlling the flow.

The chemical process for producing the smoke is a secret belonging to Major J. C. Savage, who has been experimenting with it since 1913 for the air ministry. He has now succeeded in producing an effect, which remains in the air for five minutes and is then repeated.

The chief difficulties of the process lie in the fact that only the most skillful pilot is able to maneuver the machine so as to obtain the desired effects, as the writing has to be done backward.

A quarter of a million cubic feet of smoke per second is used in the process.

In writing the words "Daily Mail" the length of the actual smoke trail was 10 miles while the writing took five minutes to complete.

A DAY TO REMEMBER

Chapter 60

Sunday dawned bright and warm. Tom came for Gertie at 11 o'clock and they decided this time to take the road along the Hudson River. The boats plying between New York and Albany fascinated Gertie, and Tom said:

"Some day we must take that trip." Gertie thrilled. That "some day" sounded as if he were coming back, as it she would see him again. The sun seemed to shine more brightly, the grass and trees were greener, the day took on a new happiness.

They lunched at a quaint little Inn at Harmon, sitting at a table where they looked down the ravine to the stream flowing quietly so far below them. An Hawaiian orchestra played softly, and Gertie thought nothing could be more delightful than this wonderful Sunday she was spending with Tom. He revealed in her pleasure, and drew her on to talk—perhaps more intimately than she ever before had done.

They lingered over the luncheon, then scrambled down the steep bank to the stream beneath. A canoe was fastened to a float, and Tom paddled her up and down for half an hour. Gertie never had been in a canoe before and at first was inclined to be a bit timid. But Tom's expertness soon reassured her and she was enthusiastic over the new experience.

When they tried of the canoe they started for home. Tom had tickets for a concert at the Hippodrome. They would dine in town. Galli Curci was to sing, and they were anxious to be in good time. Tom had never heard her, and it pleased Gertie immensely. It was something new to both of them that they could enjoy together.

At dinner Tom, who had been watching Gertie, asked:

"You'll excuse me for speaking of it, Gertie, but where did you learn to be so dainty—about all you do?"

"What do you mean Tom?"

He was a bit embarrassed, his question had slipped out almost unconsciously. But he was naturally frank, so replied:

"You have told me you never went to places like this, and yet to watch you eat, handle the table implements, one would think you had always been accustomed to just this sort of thing."

Gertie blushed, and shyly answered: "I found an old etiquette book one day, oh years ago—when I was about 14, I guess. I almost learned it by heart, Tom, and then when I'm out I watch—you and other people."

Her naive answer amused him. But he controlled his expression. She might think he was laughing at her, and be hurt.

"However you learned, you are all right—all right in every way." "I'm so glad you think so, Tom. I sometimes have been afraid you'd be ashamed of me. The girls you know must be so very different from me," her mind upon Miss Walton.

"Not many are as sweet and dainty as you are, Gertie, no matter who they are, or how they live."

How Gertie enjoyed that concert. Tom scarcely heard the great singer so intent was he upon watching his companion. Her cheeks flushed, her eyes shone. She leaned forward, and at times scarcely seemed to breathe.

so intent was she upon the singer. They drove through the park before going home. The night was warm, and neither of them was tired. They talked a little of the concert of the singer. But mostly they were silent. They left the park and drove out to Grant's tomb, down the hill around Claremont, then he turned the nose of his car homeward.

"I've only a few days more, Gertie," Tom finally said, slowing down a little.

"I know." A little quaver in her voice.

"Shall you be sorry?"

"Oh—yes, Tom."

"Gertie, I didn't mean to—not—yet—but you are so dear, so sweet—I can't let you go! Will you marry me, Gertie? Will you come out and live on the ranch?" His arm stole around her, "I love you darling. Can you love and make you happy. Can you love me—do you dear?"

"Yes, Tom—I love you—I guess I—always have," and Gertie hid her face against his sleeve, until he raised it and pressed a kiss upon the sweet lips that trembled under his.

"OUR VALUES ALWAYS BEST"

The U-Save-It Store Sells More than "Just Groceries"

When you're down town and want to use a telephone, come in and use ours.

If you make an appointment with a friend, just say, "I'll meet you in the cozy corner."

Come in and rest when you're tired, too. Look over the latest fashion magazines that are to be found on the table.

We want to be of service to everybody in this community, and we'll be glad to see you come in any time.

We are selling Cleanliness, Convenience, Service and Economy.

There is no cleaner grocery than ours in operation, anywhere.

The arrangement of the merchandise which enables you to serve yourself without losing time, and the arrangement of our store in its entirety, stand as the last word in Convenience.

We have put a new meaning into the word, "Service." Our customers are given the first consideration—and every consideration.

And, strange to say, you get all this at a lower price than you usually pay for "just groceries" in other stores.
